

HOW TO CONDUCT WORKPLACE INVESTIGATIONS INVOLVING MENTAL HEALTH PROBLEMS

Protect International is pleased to present a workshop on How to Conduct Workplace Investigations Involving Mental Health Problems on 17 May 2022 via Zoom!

WHY ATTEND?

Fitness for Work (FFW) and Return to Work (RTW) evaluations related to mental health problems may be required to determine if an employee can perform essential job functions without risking harm to themselves or co-workers. This workshop will 1) review relevant legal issues pertaining to FFW and RTW evaluations, 2) discuss practical issues for organizations when preparing for and proceeding with these evaluations, and 3) provide practical solutions for organizations related to policies and procedures.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

This workshop is designed for professionals whose work involves risk assessment and management, including those working in criminal justice, security, victim services, forensic mental health, civil mental health, general health care, social services, human resources, occupational health and safety, and legal services.

WORKSHOP INSTRUCTORS

Drs. Stephen Hart and Brianne Layden are internationally recognized experts, prolific authors, and engaging presenters. They have been involved in developing, implementing, and evaluating risk assessment procedures around the world. They are passionate about providing evidence-based understanding, knowledge, and skills in assessing and managing risk for violence and self-directed violence that professionals can apply in practice.
