

HOW TO SELF-CARE FOR THREAT ASSESSMENT PROFESSIONALS

Protect International is pleased to present a workshop on How to Self-Care for Threat Assessment Professionals on 27 September 2022 via Zoom!

WHY ATTEND?

More attention needs to be paid to how you cope with the content of the threat assessments you carry out, the impact that interviewees or collaterals may have on you, or even the stress associated with the setting you work. This workshop will 1) discuss the potential impact of conducting threat assessments on professionals, 2) provide an overview of tools and best-practice guidelines related to self-care, 3) identify individual, relational, and organizational warning signs related to problems with self-care, and 4) identify possible solutions to assist professionals and organizations with improving their self-care practices.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

This workshop is designed for professionals whose work involves risk assessment and management, including those working in criminal justice, security, victim services, forensic mental health, civil mental health, general health care, social services, human resources, occupational health and safety, and legal services.

WORKSHOP INSTRUCTOR

Dr. Brianne Layden is an internationally recognized expert, a prolific author, and an engaging presenter. She has been involved in developing, implementing, and evaluating risk assessment procedures around the world. She is passionate about providing evidence-based understanding, knowledge, and skills in assessing and managing risk for violence and self-directed violence that professionals can apply in practice.
