

UNDERSTANDING... VIOLENCE RISK COMMUNICATION WORKSHOP SERIES

Protect International is pleased to present a Violence Risk Communication Workshop Series offered across four 3-hour Workshops on 9, 16, 23, 30 May 2023 via Zoom!

WHY ATTEND?

Risk communication is one of the most important and most challenging strategies for ensuring that management recommendations are implemented, and violence is prevented. This workshop series focuses on understanding violence risk communication with an emphasis oral reports, short reports, long reports, and expert testimony. Each workshop will provide essential knowledge about the structure, content, and process of these specific forms of risk communication. Case illustrations will be used to highlight both promising practices and challenging issues in this area. You are welcome to register for the individual workshops or the entire workshop series at a discounted price!

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

This workshop is designed for professionals whose work involves risk assessment and management, including those working in criminal justice, security, victim services, forensic mental health, civil mental health, general health care, social services, human resources, occupational health and safety, and legal services.

WORKSHOP INSTRUCTORS

Drs. Kelly Watt and Brianne Layden are internationally recognized experts, prolific authors, and engaging presenters.
