

GENERAL PRINCIPLES OF WORKPLACE INVESTIGATIONS

Protect International is pleased to present a workshop on General Principles of Workplace Investigations on 17 May 2023 via Zoom!

WHY ATTEND?

Misconduct, Fitness for Work (FFW), and Return to Work (RTW) investigations are often required when concerns are raised about misconduct and mental health. Although the focus of each workplace investigation is different, they have similar legal principles and practical frameworks. This workshop will 1) review relevant legal issues pertaining to workplace investigations, 2) discuss practical issues for organizations when preparing for and proceeding with workplace investigations, and 3) provide potential solutions for organizations related to policies and procedures for workplace investigations.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

This workshop is designed for professionals whose work involves risk assessment and management, including those working in criminal justice, security, victim services, forensic mental health, civil mental health, general health care, social services, human resources, occupational health and safety, and legal services.

WORKSHOP INSTRUCTORS

Dr. Stephen Hart, Dr. Brianne Layden and Ms. Nicole Russel are internationally recognized experts, prolific authors, and engaging presenters. They have been involved in developing, implementing, and evaluating risk assessment procedures around the world. They are passionate about providing evidence-based understanding, knowledge, and skills in assessing and managing risk for violence that professionals can apply in practice.
