

SELF-DIRECTED VIOLENCE RISK TRIAGE (SDVRT) WORKSHOP

Protect International is pleased to present a 1-Day Self-Directed Violence Risk Triage. The workshop is taking place on 17 April 2024 virtually via Zoom.

WHY ATTEND?

Many professionals struggle with knowing when they have a reason to be concerned about self-directed violence, how to prioritize cases, and what immediate actions to implement. During this workshop you will learn how to triage for self-directed violence risk using the Self-Directed Violence Risk Triage (SDVRT). You will also learn about legal issues relevant to violence towards the self and best practices regarding risk communication.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

This workshop is designed for professionals whose work involves risk assessment and management, including those working in criminal justice, security, victim services, forensic mental health, civil mental health, general health care, social services, human resources, occupational health and safety, and legal services.

WORKSHOP INSTRUCTOR

Dr Brianne Layden works as a Threat Assessment Specialist at Protect International Risk and Safety Services, Inc. She holds a doctorate in clinical-forensic psychology and her work focuses on conducting assessments, providing training and developing, implementing and evaluating strategies related to preventing, assessing and managing risk for violence toward the self or others.
