

AID FOR VIOLENCE RISK TRIAGE (AVRT) WORKSHOP

Protect International is pleased to present the newly released version of the Aid for Violence Risk Triage on 6 March 2024 via Zoom!

WHY ATTEND?

The Aid for Violence Risk Triage (AVRT) is a newly released tool designed to help professionals to determine when they have a reason to be concerned about violence towards others, how to prioritize cases, and what immediate actions to implement. The AVRT has been under development for over two decades and is based on extensive research, feedback from experts, and consideration of the law.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

This workshop is designed for professionals whose work involves risk assessment and management, including those working in criminal justice, security, victim services, forensic mental health, civil mental health, general health care, social services, human resources, occupational health and safety, and legal services.

Dr. Kelly Watt is an internationally recognized expert, a prolific author, and an engaging presenter. She has been involved in developing, implementing, and evaluating risk assessment procedures around the world. She is passionate about providing evidence-based understanding, knowledge, and skills in victim safety planning that professionals can apply in practice.
