Interviewing Skills and Violence Risk

Workshop

Workshop Overview

Protect International is pleased to present an Interviewing Skills and Violence Risk Workshop.

Conducting interviews is one of the most important and challenging strategies for gathering information when assessing and managing violence risk. During this workshop you will learn about best practices when conducting interviews with perpetrators, victims and witnesses of violence. The workshop will focus on foundational issues, core components and special issues (e.g., mental disorder) that arise when conducting interviews. Case illustrations will be provided through recordings and templates. Implementation issues related to risk communication will also be discussed.

Our Instructor

Dr. Kelly Watt is an internationally recognized expert, a prolific author, and an engaging presenter. She has been involved in developing, implementing, and evaluating risk assessment procedures around the world. Conducting interviews is one of the most important and challenging strategies for gathering information when assessing and managing violence risk.
